BENEVOLENT AND PROTECTIVE ORDER OF ELKS OF THE DOMINION OF CANADA AND NEWFOUNDLAND

Message from the Grand
Exalted Ruler

BROTHER ELKS:

IT GIVES me a great deal of pleasure to extend to you my sincere fraternal greetings, and a hearty welcome to the 27th Annual Session of the Grand Lodge of our beloved Order. Grand Lodge convenes this year in "The Royal City" of New Westminster, in the Province of British Columbia. New Westminster Lodge No. 3 is one of the outstanding Lodges in Canadian Elkdom, a strong pillar of the Order, and we are indeed happy to have the privilege of meeting here on this occasion.

The Brothers of New Westminster Lodge have spared no effort for your comfort and entertainment. Ample time has been provided for the serious business of the Sessions as well as for your recreation and enjoyment. I am sure that your stay here will be a happy one.

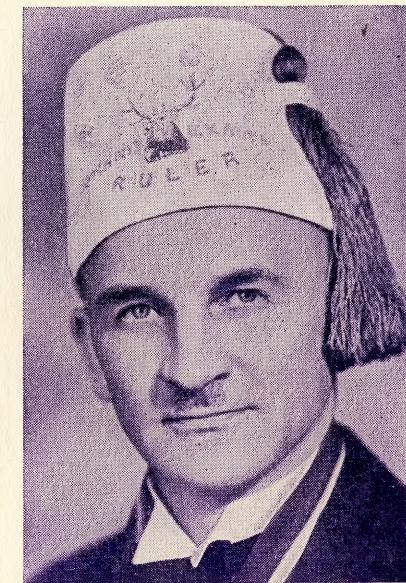

This is an epoch-making year in the lives of Canadian people. The visit of Their Majesties, the King and Queen, will undoubtedly leave a lasting impression. A true spirit of "Unity" will have been engendered in our hearts and minds. Let us renew our loyalty to both our Country and our Order, and pledge ourselves to work unceasingly for their welfare and prosperity.

You will have important problems to discuss and solve. Let us do our work and conduct ourselves in an atmosphere of Charity, Justice, Brotherly Love and Fidelity.

My very best thanks and appreciation to all for your co-operation and help, without which no progress is possible.

Sincerely and fraternally yours,

JOHN VASELENAK,
Grand Exalted Ruler

Message from the Grand Secretary- Treasurer

Brother Elks:

THE Grand Lodge Benevolent & Protective Order of Elks, Canada and Newfoundland, has been meeting annually since the year 1912 to discuss the various phases of its fraternal and benevolent activities and to legislate for its future welfare and development. This year it meets in "The Royal City" (New Westminster), a city that has established a meritorious record of achievement in both industry and commerce; a city blessed with a delightful climate and wealth of scenic beauty.

Our meeting this year should, therefore, profit by the tranquillity and beauty of its environment, and the hearts and minds of our delegates, ringing true to the principles of Elkdom in which we are all so deeply interested, should enable them to legislate with practical wisdom and prophetic vision.

I am sure this Twenty-Seventh Annual Convention will be a most enjoyable gathering and will long be remembered by those who were fortunate enough to attend.

Fraternally yours,

ROYAL BURRITT,
Grand Secretary-Treasurer.

Message from
His Worship
Mayor
Fred J. Hume

Dear Brother Elks:

AS MAYOR of the City of New Westminster, may I take this opportunity of extending to you all a personal invitation to come to New Westminster this summer to participate in the Elks' 27th Annual Grand Lodge Reunion, as well as the British Columbia Elks' Conference which will be held during the week of July 17th.

I can assure you our citizens will leave nothing undone to make your stay in our City most enjoyable in every respect.

Among the many entertainment features being planned for the Convention will be a Grand Parade, Band Concerts, Golf, Trap-shooting Competitions, Motor Tours, Smoking Concerts, concluding with a Grand Lodge Banquet and Ball in the new building recently erected in Queen's Park, one of Western Canada's most popular sports centres.

New Westminster bids you welcome. May we have the pleasure of seeing and entertaining you.

Yours sincerely,

Fred J. Hume

Dear Brother Elks:

A VERY nice gesture on the part of New Westminster B. P. O. Elks has been accorded me, granting space to augment the many messages which appear in this Convention Booklet and to extend an invitation to all Elks to visit the Royal City during Convention Week, July 17 to 21.

This is all the more pleasing because of the fact that I was the first Exalted Ruler of Lodge No. 3, being Member No. 1, and holding a Life Membership in the Lodge.

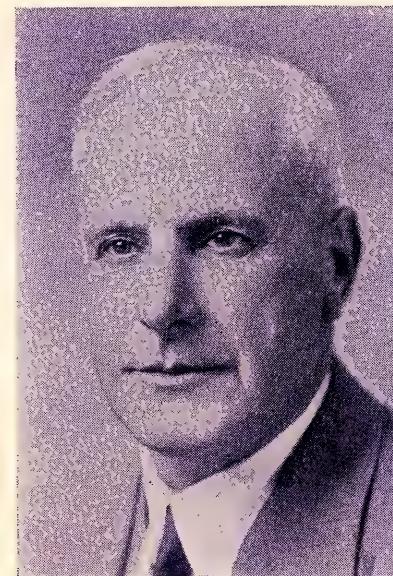

"The vacationland that has everything" is the way British Columbia can be described. Elks who have visited the Coast will appreciate that slogan. To those who have yet to pay us a visit, we repeat it here.

We Elks are leaving no stone unturned to make this 27th Annual Grand Lodge Convention a huge success. We have a wonderful new Home which every delegate will appreciate. The entertainment features will keep everybody occupied.

So, as their First Exalted Ruler and as the city's representative in the Provincial Legislature and Cabinet, I join with New Westminster Elks in inviting all to head for the Coast in July and take part in what promises to be a wonderful time.

Fraternally yours,

A. Wells Gray

BENEVOLENT AND PROTECTIVE ORDER OF ELKS OF THE DOMINION OF CANADA AND NEWFOUNDLAND

Greetings from the President of British Columbia Elks
Association

BROTHER ELKS:

AS PRESIDENT of the British Columbia Elks Association, it gives me very great pleasure to extend to you all, Grand Lodge Officers, Delegates, and Visitors alike, a very hearty welcome to this our 27th annual Dominion Grand Lodge Convention, as well as to the 15th annual British Columbia Elks Association Meeting, at New Westminster July 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th and 21st.

I can assure you Brothers, that the Exalted Ruler, Officers, and Members of New Westminster Lodge No. 3, have done everything humanly possible to make this double event, something to be long remembered in the annals of Elkdom; expediency in the handling of all business matters, and a wealth of entertainment which I am sure you will agree with me will be "par excellence."

"Elkdom" in Canada today is on a very sound footing. The great principles for which our Order stands is an object lesson to all in the present days of unrest. These cardinal principles should give us the inspiration with which to enhance, not only a greater unity amongst our own membership, but a profound preponderance of the true meaning of lasting "Friendship". May Elkdom ever move forward, carrying with it to all four corners of our vast Dominion, its ideals, teaching by precept and example, the lessons of "Brotherly Love, Charity and Justice" to all.

Remember: Every subordinate Lodge owes to itself, as well as to our organization, the duty of being present at our Grand Lodge Conventions, and our Provincial Association meetings. New Westminster Lodge No. Three is expecting you. Do not disappoint them.

Fraternally yours,

CHARLES A. VAUGHAN,
President British Columbia Elks Association.

BROTHER ELKS:

IT IS with very grateful appreciation that I avail myself of the kindly invitation extended to me by New Westminster Lodge No. 3 to express a few words of welcome to Grand Lodge Officers, Delegates and Visitors who will attend the 27th annual convention of the B. P. O. E. and the annual conference of the B. C. Elks Association, both to be held in "The Royal City" of New Westminster, July 17th to 21st.

District No. 1 B. C., comprising ten Lodges, is perhaps the greatest in number of any in our domain and it has been a source of considerable pleasure to have been privileged to serve them during the past year and on behalf of all of them I desire to extend to all those attending these two great events in Elkdom a most cordial and fraternal welcome to District No. 1 in general, and particularly to the City of New Westminster.

Sincerely and fraternally,

STAN MURCHISON,
District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler .

BROTHER ELKS:

IT IS my very great pleasure and privilege to extend to you a most hearty and fraternal welcome on behalf of the officers and members of Lodge No. 3 to our new "Home" in the "Royal City"—New Westminster, B. C.

Since the first of the year committees have been working hard to make this year's Provincial Conference and Grand Lodge Convention the best in the history of our wonderful Order, and in this connection I wish to express sincere thanks to Lower Mainland Lodges, and Provincial and Grand Lodge Officers, for their splendid co-operation.

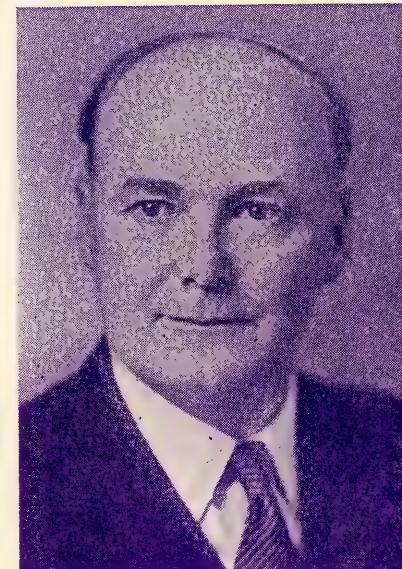

New Westminster Lodge, being greatly interested in the progress of Elkdom, very gladly welcomes this opportunity to be your hosts; let us renew old friendships and make new friends.

Only by having representation can subordinate lodges assist in formulating the future policy of Grand Lodge, and we hope that each and every lodge in Canada and Newfoundland has given this matter its serious consideration and that a good attendance is assured.

Let me say in closing that we have prepared a full programme for your entertainment and pleasure and may you always have happy memories of No. 3 and our fair city.

Sincerely and fraternally,

R. W. STORIE,
Exalted Ruler.
